

- mean reversion (Continued)
- swaption volatility difference
 - EUR 5Y5Y – GBP 5Y5Y, 43, 44f
 - unconditional and conditional densities for volatility spread, 46, 47f
 - realized volatility of the ten-year (10Y) US Treasury yield, 20–1
 - return predictability and alpha, 24
 - risk-adjusted returns, ex ante, 36–41
 - simulation see simulation, mean reversion
 - stationary densities and
 - mean-reverting processes, 23–4
 - stochastic differential equation, 21–2, 30, 31, 34, 38, 39, 41
 - swaption volatility difference EUR 5Y5Y, daily moves, 22, 23f
 - 2Y/5Y/10Y butterfly spread along the USD swap curve, 21
 - unconditional density, 23
- Merton, Robert, 1
- mixed jump-diffusion models, 143–5
- MLE see maximum likelihood estimation (MLE)
- monetary policy, 103, 144–5, 174
- exceptional, 100
 - unusual, 260
- Monte Carlo simulation, 30, 160, 161, 164
- multivariate mean
 - reversion/multivariate Ornstein-Uhlenbeck (MVOU) process, 10, 111–34
- BTPs (Treasury Bonds) butterfly
 - example, 123–8
 - butterfly spread and average yield, 123–4, 124f
- correlation as a function of
 - horizon, 125, 126f
- initializing the optimization
 - routine when performing maximum likelihood, 125
- conditional covariance matrix,
 - calculating, 121–2
- conditional density, 120–2
- correlation as a function of
 - horizon, 119
 - with opposite reactions to Brownian motion changes, 120f
- correlation coefficient estimated from MVOU model, 126, 127f
- differential equation within MVOU, 113–14, 115f, 116f, 117f, 118–20
- examples, 123–8
- expected spread over time, 114, 115f
 - as a function of time, 131, 132f
 - given different half-lives, 116
 - given different half-lives and one-way attraction, 116, 117f
- expected values over time, 114
 - as a function of time, 131
 - given different half-lives, 114, 115f
 - given different half-lives and one-way attraction, 116, 117f
- implied volatilities (EUR 5Y5Y and GBP 5Y5Y), 128–31, 132f, 133
- estimated correlation coefficient
 - as a function of horizon, 129–30
- EUR and GBP implied swaption volatilities, 128f
- likelihood function, 122
- log likelihood function, 122

- mathematics, 111–12
 - multivariate MVOU compared
 - with univariate OU process, 111
 - research implications, 133–4
 - standard deviation, 130, 131, 132*f*
 - stochastic differential equation, 112–13
 - unconditional density, 122
 - vector field corresponding to
 - transition matrix, 118*f*, 119
 - MVOU process see multivariate mean reversion/multivariate Ornstein-Uhlenbeck (MVOU) process
- N
- Nelson–Siegel (NS) model, 55
 - Net Stable Funding Ratio (NSFR), 329–30
 - Newton algorithm, 59
 - NSFR see Net Stable Funding Ratio (NSFR)
- O
- OIS see overnight indexed swaps (OIS)
 - OLS see ordinary least squares (OLS)
 - O/N (overnight) lending see overnight (O/N) lending
 - options, 14, 335–84
 - annualized volatility, 364–7
 - Asian, 383–4
 - basis point values, 358
 - delta of, 335–7
 - function of difference between underlying and strike price, 336, 343*f*
 - different exposure of different types of trades, 348–9
 - eigenvalues (PCA) of vega sector, JPY volatility surface, 374, 375*f*
 - eigenvectors (PCA), of vega sector, JPY volatility surface
 - first, 373, 374, 375*f*
 - second, 65, 66*f*, 374, 376*f*
 - third, 374, 377*f*
 - exposure, option trade types, 382–3
 - gamma, 341–2, 345, 346*f*
 - classification of option trades in, 347–8
 - relationship with theta, 342–4
 - hedging, 337–41
 - lognormal and normal volatility, 364–7
 - in-the-money, 336
 - at-the-money, 336
 - option pricing theory, 335–7
 - out-of-the-money, 336
 - price as function of difference
 - between underlying and strike price, 337
 - pricing theory, 335–42
 - theta, 341–2
 - as function of time to expiry, 342–3, 342*f*
 - relationship with gamma, 342–4
 - time horizon for a realized p, 364–7
 - type 1 (single underlying), 349–56
 - type 1 (two or more underlying), 356–9, 360*f*
 - type 2 (single underlying), 361–3
 - type 2 (two or more underlying), 368–72
 - type 3 (factor model for vega sector), 372–4
 - vega, 341–2, 345, 346*f*
 - volatility surface

- options (Continued)
- classification of into sector
 - suitable for gamma and vega trades, 345, 346f
 - eigenvalues of vega sector of JPY surface see above
 - eigenvectors of vega sector of JPY surface see above
 - segmentation of, 344–7
- ordinary least squares (OLS), 167
- Ornstein–Uhlenbeck (OU) process, 91
- linear drift coefficients, 178
 - model forecast compared with
 - performance of Bund butterfly, 95, 95f, 96f
 - multivariate see multivariate mean reversion/multivariate Ornstein–Uhlenbeck (MVOU) process
 - OU simulation, 108–9
 - stochastic differential equation, 21
 - univariate, xi, 10, 111, 112, 114, 116, 131–2, 133
- OTC see over-the-counter (OTC) products
- OU process see Ornstein–Uhlenbeck (OU) process
- out-of-the-money (OTM) option, 336
- overnight (O/N) lending, 193
- versus asset swap spreads, 222–3
 - euro short-term rate (ESTR), 209, 222
 - evolution of O/N Shadow Rate
 - implied by EUR yield curve, 146–7, 147f
 - reference rates, 193
 - rolling loans, 215
 - spread between unsecured O/N and term rates
 - default risk, effect of, 208–9
 - driven by credit exposure, 206–9
 - interest rate compounding
 - convexity, effect of, 207
 - interest rate compounding, effect of, 207
 - risk and term premia, effects of, 207–8
 - short rate expectations, effect of, 206–7
- unsecured lending, 193, 204, 205
- O/N lending versus swap spreads, 222–3
 - see also* reference rates
- overnight indexed swaps (OIS), 193
- overshooting, 118n4
- over-the-counter (OTC) products, 265
- P
- par asset swap spreads, 311–13
- PCA (principal component analysis) see principal component analysis (PCA)
- PMLE see pseudo-maximum likelihood estimation (PMLE)
- power reverse dual callables (PRDCs), 276
- PRDCs see power reverse dual callables
- principal component analysis (PCA), 2, 8, 10, 51–110, 142
- analyzing exposure of trading positions and investment portfolios, 81–4
 - Bund yield curve see German Bunds
 - on CDS curve, 244, 245f, 246–7
 - core EUR sovereigns, 67, 68f, 247, 248f, 250, 251f, 252

- first three eigenvectors, 67, 68*f*, 245*f*, 250, 251*f*
 - first three factors, 246*f*, 250, 251*f*
 - Italian CDS curve, 245*f*, 246*f*
 - scaled eigenvalues, 244, 245*f*, 247, 248*f*, 250, 254, 255*f*
 - covariance matrix, 56, 57
 - currencies, factors of a PCA on see under as a factor model below; currencies
 - eigenvalues see eigenvalues (principal component analysis), scaled
 - eigenvectors see eigenvectors (principal component analysis)
 - embedding in trade ideas, 73–7
 - as a factor model, 59–60
 - Bund yield curve, 1, 54–6, 75, 76, 96
 - correlation between factors
 - during subperiods, problems and pitfalls, 96–9
 - currencies, 106–7, 106*t*, 107, 108*f*, 109, 109*f*
 - decomposing markets into
 - uncorrelated factors, 71–3
 - first three factors, 61, 75, 76, 106*t*, 184
 - first three factors on currencies, 106–7
 - PCA-neutral steepened versus factor 1, 1, 96
 - soy market, historical evolution of the first and second factors of a PCA on, 70*f*
 - structure and definitions, 54–6
 - goal and method, 51–2
 - hedge ratios, 78–9, 80*f*, 81
 - interpretation
 - eigenvectors, 60–5
 - intuitive, 57
 - intuitive approach to, 52–4
 - investment portfolios, analyzing
 - exposure of, 81–4
 - market mechanisms, 60–5
 - market reconstruction and forecasting, 82–3
 - mathematical considerations, 56–9
 - for maturity selection and curve trades, 184
 - PCA-neutral steepening, 96, 98*f* and relative value, 51, 52
 - on risk-free bond yields, 253–4
 - tool for asset selection, 85–9
 - tool for screening market for trade ideas, 84–9
 - tool to construct new types of trade, 103–4, 105*f*, 109*f*, 110
 - trading positions
 - analyzing exposure of, 81–4
 - example of PCA-based trade idea, 89–95, 96*f*
 - PCA as screening tool for trade ideas, 84–9
 - trading positions, analyzing
 - exposure of, 81–4
 - yield curve model based on, 83–4
 - pseudo-maximum likelihood estimation (PMLE), 31–2, 33
 - pure random walk, 22
- Q
- quasi-maximum likelihood estimation (QMLE), 31
- R
- random walk
 - with no drift, 24
 - pure, 22
 - simulated, 17–19, 18*f*

- reference rates, 12, 193–211
 - combining capital requirements and credit exposure into model for repo-LIBOR spread, 209–11
 - cross-currency basis swaps, 274
 - driving forces of spread between different rates, 204–5
 - evolution of USD rate, 203, 204*f*
 - global, overview, 193–7
 - new, vii–viii
 - secured overnight financing rates (SOFR), 202–3, 203*f*
 - spread between different rates, 204–5
 - spread between secured and unsecured loans, capital requirements, 205–6
 - spread between unsecured O/N and term rates
 - default risk, effect of, 208–9
 - driven by credit exposure, 206–9
 - interest rate compounding
 - convexity, effect of, 207
 - interest rate compounding, effect of, 207
 - risk and term premia, effects of, 207–8
 - short rate expectations, effect of, 206–7
- regression analysis, 167
- regulation, 325–34
 - and capital constraints, vii, ix–x, 202, 211, 301, 321
 - holding Bunds, 216
 - impact on markets, 192
 - regulatory arbitrage, 4
 - regulatory burdens on banks, 333
 - regulatory jurisdictions, 205, 206
 - tightening of, ix
- relative value (RV), 1–14, 385–94
 - analytical scope, 8
 - applications, 5–7
 - arbitrageurs and politicians, 387–9
 - broad perspective, 14
 - concept, 1–2
 - craft of relative value analysis, 7–9
 - cross-currency basis swaps, 5, 13
 - defining, 4
 - demand for immediacy, 3
 - global bond, 307–20
 - hedging and immunization, 6
 - insights from analysis, 4–5
 - macroeconomic role of analysis and trading, 385–6
 - misrepresentation of arbitrage by politicians, 389–90
 - misspecified models, 3–4
 - parsimony, 8–9
 - political implications, 390–1
 - and principal component analysis, 51, 52
 - regulatory arbitrage, 4
 - security selection, 6–7
 - SOFR swap spreads as a global indicator for bonds, 309–10
 - problems with, 310–14
 - sources of opportunities, 2–4
 - trading, 5
 - usefulness, 7–8
- repos
 - counterparties, 3, 322
 - counterparty and collateral combined, 201
 - credit default swaps, 262
 - credit risk, 196
 - credit sources, 201
 - haircuts, 200, 232
 - JP Morgan and repo spike of September 2019, 331–2, 333, 334

- LIBOR–repo interest rate
 - difference, 210, 211, 227, 314
 - overview of market, 196–7
 - rates, 197–202
 - repo ‘fails,’ 199–200
 - Repo Facility (Fed), 322
 - repo–LIBOR swap, 213, 214
 - repricing, 198
 - specialness, 170, 198–9
 - Standing Repo Facility (SRF), 332
 - substitution, right of, 200–1
 - tri-party or custodial repo, 201–2
 - rich/cheap indicators, 145, 179,
 - 181–4
 - adjusting, 144, 309
 - bonds denominated in different currencies
 - fitted bond curves, 315–18
 - SOFR spreads, 319–20
 - fitted bond curves, 94, 183, 184
 - for individual bonds, 177, 308
 - mean reversion, 177, 178
 - regression analysis, 181
 - selecting bond issues for trade
 - expression, 179, 180
 - Sharpe ratio, 178
 - standard deviation, 178
 - statistical analysis of, 177
 - swaps/swap spreads, viii, 182, 307,
 - 313, 315, 317
 - deficiencies of spreads as
 - rich/cheap measures, 13,
 - 308, 310
 - EURIBOR swaps, 181
 - par asset swap spreads,
 - usefulness of, 313
 - SOFR–ASW, 310
 - trading bond switches and
 - butterflies, 179
 - universal, for bonds, 190, 192, 287,
 - 308
 - Z-scores and T-stats, 177, 178
 - risk
 - default, effect of, 208–9
 - foreign exchange (FX) market, 275
 - market risk regulations, 330–1
 - risk measures, standard deviation,
 - 37, 38
 - sovereign default, 214
 - and term premia, effects of, 207–8
 - trading book, 330
 - Value at Risk, 330
 - risk-adjusted returns, ex ante, 36–41
 - first passage times, 39–41, 48
 - nonparametric kernel density and
 - histogram, 36, 37*f*, 40, 41*f*
 - Sharpe ratio as one measure of,
 - 36–9
 - risk-weighted assets (RWAs), 206,
 - 327, 328
 - Ross, Stephen, 141
 - RV see relative value (RV)
- S
- scatter matrix, 112, 113, 119
 - estimated, 125
 - scatterplot, 161, 162*f*
 - Schaller, C., vii, 144n2, 145, 193n1,
 - 196n3, 196n4, 202, 203*f*, 220n5,
 - 269, 269*f*
 - Schatz futures contracts, 83, 173,
 - 177, 180
 - Scholes, Myron, 1
 - see also* Black–Scholes model
 - SDE see stochastic differential equation (SDE)
 - secured overnight financing rates (SOFR), 265

- secured overnight financing rates (SOFR) (Continued)
- and asset swap spreads, 181, 217–22, 307–20
 - evolution of, 144
 - funding rates, 189
 - future market, 144
 - link between SOFR and
 - EURIBOR, 189–90, 270, 274, 285, 286
 - reference rates, 202–3, 203^f
 - swap spreads as a global RV
 - indicator for bonds, 13–14, 309–10
 - and unsecured lending, viii, 202
 - USD, 13
 - see also* SOFR (secured overnight financing rates)
- Shadow Rate (SR) models, 143, 146–7
- Sharpe ratio, 22, 42, 46
- annualized, 39, 47
 - conditional, 38–9
 - ex ante, 31
 - maximizing, 81
 - measure of risk-adjusted return, 36–9
 - rich/cheap indicators, 178
 - and standard deviation, 38, 47
- simulation, mean reversion
- histogram of simulated values, 34, 36
 - simulated mean-reverting process, 17–20, 19^f
 - simulated random walk, 17–19, 18^f
- SOFR (secured overnight financing rates) see secured overnight financing rates (SOFR)
- soy market
- historical evolution of the first and second factors of a PCA on, 70^f
 - scaled eigenvalues of a PCA on, 68, 69^f
- SRF see Standing Repo Facility (SRF)
- Standard & Poor 500 (S&P500) index
- delta hedging, 337
 - versus factor 3 of a PCA on currencies, 107
 - versus regression of factor 3 of a PCA on currencies, 107, 108^f
 - and residual for a regression between a PCA-neutral currency portfolio and S&P500 index, 108, 109^f
- standard deviation
- breakeven level, 354
 - calculating over daily basis-point changes, 364
 - conditional, 38, 131
 - delivery option, Latin American defaults, 237
 - diffusion coefficients, 28
 - ease of calculating, 37
 - of Gaussian kernel, 35
 - known, 178n3
 - multi-factor delivery option model, 160
- MVOU process, 130, 131, 132^f
- random variables, 40
- and realized volatility, 364, 365
 - rich/cheap indicators, 178
 - risk measures, 37, 38
 - risk-adjusted return, 46
- Shadow Rate (SR) models, 146
- Sharpe ratio, 38, 47
- of spread as a function of time, 131, 132^f
 - of terminal values, 34

- transition density, 34, 46
 - Z-scores and T-stats, 177–8
 - Standing Repo Facility (SRF), 332
 - Stanton, Richard, 26
 - statistical models, 9–10
 - mean reversion see mean reversion
 - multivariate mean reversion see
 - multivariate mean
 - reversion/multivariate
 - Ornstein-Uhlenbeck (MVOU)
 - process
 - principal component analysis see
 - principal component analysis (PCA)
 - stochastic differential equation (SDE)
 - execution strategies, assessing and optimizing, 42
 - mean reversion, 21–2, 30, 31, 34, 38, 39, 41
 - multivariate mean
 - reversion/MVOU process, 112–13
 - subprime crisis
 - basis swaps, 267
 - and global financial crisis, 279–81
 - Supplementary Leverage Ratio, 328
 - swap spreads see asset swap spreads (ASWs)
 - swaps
 - arbitrage equality between USD ASW and CDS, 293–6
 - arbitrage inequality between USD ASW and CDS, 297–302
 - asset see asset swaps
 - basis point, 11
 - calculating USD swap spreads for foreign bonds, 289–91
 - combinations and mutual influences of, 10–11, 13, 287–306
 - credit, 214–15
 - credit default see credit default swaps (CDS)
 - cross-currency basis see
 - cross-currency basis swaps (CCBS)
 - equilibrium between asset and basis swaps, 291–3
 - equilibrium between asset, basis and credit default swaps, 302–3
 - euro overnight index average (EONIA), 6, 7, 193
 - funding, 214–15
 - German Bunds, equilibrium for, 303, 304f
 - Japanese Government Bonds, 304, 305f, 306
 - see also* asset swap spreads (ASWs)
- T
- TIBOR, 193, 265, 266
 - ASW, 290
 - Tier 1 Capital, Basel III
 - requirements, 327, 328
 - Tier 1 Leverage Ratio, 328
 - TONAR, 193, 271, 289, 290
 - trade/trading
 - constructing trade ideas with PCA, 90–5
 - credit default swaps, 243–4
 - example of PCA-based trade ideas, 89–95, 96f
 - PCA as a screening tool for ideas, 84–9
 - PCA as tool to construct new types of trade, 103–4, 105f, 106–8, 109f, 110

- trade/trading (Continued)
- PCA for maturity selection and curve trades, 184
 - relative value analysis, 5
 - selecting bond issues for trade expression, 179–80
 - trading positions, analyzing exposure of, 81–4
 - see also* principal component analysis (PCA)
- transition density, 22–3, 24, 31, 32, 35
- standard deviation, 34, 46
 - see also* conditional density, mean reversion
- transition matrix, 112, 114, 116, 119, 125, 133
- estimated, 130
 - free parameters, 134
 - vector field corresponding to, 118
 - yearly rating, 224
- U
- UK Gilts, 6, 322
- unconditional density, mean
- reversion, 23, 46, 47*f*
 - multivariate, 122
- unsecured lending
- asset swaps, 188
 - cross-currency basis swaps, 195
 - default probability, 210
 - default risk, 208
 - equity capital costs, 211
 - interbank loans, 209
 - and LIBOR, vii, 194, 214, 218, 220, 222
 - LIBOR-like, 194
 - mixed jump-diffusion models, 145
 - O/N rates, 193, 204, 205, 206
 - versus swap spreads, 222–3
 - reference rates, 12, 193, 194
 - regulatory arbitrage, 4
 - relative value, 9
 - repo markets, 196
 - secured-unsecured basis, 145, 222, 223, 265, 268, 269, 278, 284–6, 296
 - and SOFR, viii, 202
 - spread between reference rates, 204
 - spread between secured and unsecured loans, capital requirements, 205–6, 209
- US dollars, 5, 13
- arbitrage equality between USD ASW and CDS, 293–6
 - arbitrage inequality between USD ASW and CDS, 297–302
 - calculating USD swap spreads for foreign bonds, 289–91
 - as collateral, 281–3
 - evolution of USD reference rate, 203, 204*f*
 - gold, spot price in, 20
 - interest rates, 106
 - 2Y/5Y/10Y butterfly spread
 - along the USD swap curve, 21
 - USD–EUR FX rate, 106
- US Treasuries
- credit risk, 229
 - evolution of the first eigenvector for since 1978, 100
 - evolution of the first eigenvector for since 2015, 101, 102*f*
 - hedging, 6

- realized volatility of 10Y US Treasury Bond, 20–1
- repo borrowing, 322
- rich/cheap analysis, 318
- swap spreads, 5

V

- Value at Risk, 330
- Vasicek model, 143, 146–7
- vector autoregressive (VAR) process, first-order, 133
- volatility surface
 - classification into sector suitable for gamma and vega trades, 345, 346f
 - cluster analysis of whole surface, 66, 67f
 - eigenvalues, JPY vega sector, 374, 375f
 - eigenvectors, JPY vega sector
 - first, 374, 375f
 - second, 65, 66f, 374, 376f
 - third, 374, 377f
 - segmentation of, 344–7
 - see also* eigenvalues (principal component analysis); eigenvectors (principal component analysis); Japanese yen (JPY) volatility surface; options; principal component analysis (PCA)

W

- weighted least squares (WLS), 167, 176, 176n2
- weights, fitted bond curves, 170
- Weil, Roman, 139
- Wiener, Norbert/Wiener process, 22
- WLS see weighted least squares (WLS)

Y

- yield curve models, 143–7
 - based on PCA, 83–4
 - mixed jump-diffusion models, 143–5
 - Shadow Rate (SR) models, 143, 146–7
 - see also* German Bunds
- yield distributions, symmetric and asymmetric, 141

Z

- Zellner, Arnold, 133
- zero-coupon asset swap spreads, 313–14
- zero-coupon bonds, 137–8
- zero-interest-rate-policy (ZIRP), 100–3